

Pictures: Max Mader
 Top row: Barido Nyodee, FOWA President, Theresa Akoba, FOWA Secretary General, Hon. Noble Obani-Nwibari, MOSOP President, Barisuatam Deeyeh, MOSOP Deputy President. – Left column: Felix Keneh, MOSOP Steering Committee Chairman, Rev. Lenu Aayeko, Ogoni Churches Council President, Chief Mosoes Mlenee, MOSOP Nyokhana kingdom President. – Right column: Emmanuel Aluzim, MOSOP Publicity Secretary, Chief S. N. Asogho.

6.4 A fund awarding university fees to Ogoni students has been established in 2001. Since then, 39 students⁸⁰ have been awarded a MOSOP scholarship which covers fees for an entire four year B. A. curriculum.⁸¹ The beneficiaries are majoring in a number of different subjects, mainly in the fields of technology, health, and management.⁸² While legitimate private careers are envisaged by some, the scholarship is valued as a means of development in Ogoni by others and the intention to contribute to Ogoni interests is stated.⁸³ The MOSOP scholarship is the only long-term project requiring relevant funds that could be realised.⁸⁴